

LIVING AND LEARNING PROGRAMS

The seven Honors College living-learning programs offer intellectually engaged students a unique and distinctive educational experience. Students have the opportunity to explore their passions, discover new areas of study, and work closely with outstanding faculty in small seminars exclusively available to Honors College students. Exceptional living-learning communities, the rich and diverse resources of a top-ranked public research university, and close proximity to Washington, D.C. affords students an education unrivaled by other programs and universities.

EIP

entrepreneurship and innovation

explore entrepreneurial passions and innovative solutions to today's problems

15 honors credits

eip@umd.edu
301.314.9410

DCC

design cultures & creativity

investigate the digital age, emerging media, and creative practices

16 honors credits

klc@umd.edu
301.405.2866

ACES

advanced cybersecurity experience for students

gain the knowledge and skills to be a future leader in cybersecurity

14 honors credits

aces@umd.edu
301.314.7414

GEMSTONE

shaping the future through undergraduate interdisciplinary team research by addressing society's most crucial, compelling, and complex questions

18 honors credits

gems@umd.edu
301.458.0784

HH

honors humanities

examine how great ideas empower personal development and social change

16 honors credits

honorshumanities@umd.edu
301.405.1537

ILS

integrated life sciences

engage in rigorous courses, research, and service in preparation for exciting careers in life sciences

15 honors credits

ils-honors@umd.edu
301.405.4596

UNIVERSITY HONORS

130+ seminars

create a customized honors curriculum based on academic and career interests

16 honors credits

honors@umd.edu
301.405.6774